

Problem 3: Army Strength Difference

DESCRIPTION

Two allied military intelligence groups estimate the troop sizes of two opposing forces, represented by two integers A and B. Calculate the absolute numerical difference in the number of soldiers between the two forces.

INPUT FORMAT

The input contains two integers, A and B, separated by a space.

OUTPUT FORMAT

Print the non-negative difference between the two numbers, followed by a newline.

SAMPLE

Sample Input	Sample Output
10 12	2